Episcopal Directive regarding the administration of Holy Communion

This temporary directive, effective since Sept. 3 and until revised, enunciates the principles, context and understandings of the sacrament of Holy Communion and focuses on sanitary practices. Directives include:

- Communion will continue to be offered in both kinds, host and wine, from the common chalice;
- Communion in one kind, host only, in no way influences the validity of the Sacrament and the choice is that of the communicant;
- clergy and administrators at Communion should visibly use hand sanitizer at appropriate times;
- intinction(dipping of the host) is firmly discouraged and may be used by the administrator alone, who will dip the host and place it on the communicant's tongue so the host does not come in contact with the communicant's hands.

October 11 has been designated Homecoming Sunday in our Parish. Our Guest Preacher is the Rev. Deacon Joyce Perry who grew up in our parish. Please make a special effort to contact people who have moved away, do not attend church in this parish now or someone you know is an Anglican and invite them to come out to this special service.
